

COMMUNIST PARTY OF GREAT BRITAIN

Anniversary

th.

Anniversary

HX

632

A1

W9

NO. 126

AUGUST 28, 1960

EX LIBRIS UNIVERSITATIS ALBERTAENSIS

*The aim of the means of producti
in a planned way*

*This will end t
and will create th
in which each wil
needs.*

*n in which the
ed and utilised*

*man by man,
em of society,
cording to his*

Only a Socialist Britain, co-operating with all other peoples of the world in close, friendly, free, and equal association will be able so to develop and plan the use of all Britain's material, productive and scientific resources, that every citizen will be guaranteed security, the right to work and leisure, a steadily rising standard of living, full democratic rights, and equal opportunity to enjoy a full and happy life.

LIBRARY
UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA

Celebration Meeting

SUNDAY AUGUST 28TH, 2.45 P M

at St Pancras Town Hall

by invitation of the EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Chairman R PALME DUTT

Speakers WILLIAM GALLACHER

JOHN GOLLAN

Exhibition of pictures

messages

songs and music

The first Unity Convention held at the Cannon Street Hotel, London, on July 31 and August 1, 1920. Delegates from the British Socialist Party, the Socialist Labour Party, the Workers' Socialist Federation Communist Unity Groups and the Guild Communist Groups met to found the Communist Party

IN AC
FOR I AND SO

The "Communist Daily" published in nine issues in the 1922 General Election and the first copy of the "Daily Worker"

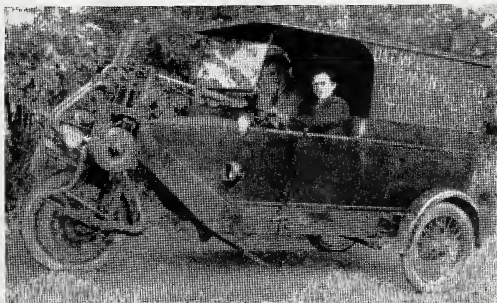

Below: The twelve Communist leaders who were arrested in 1925 as part of the Government's attack on the Communist Party and the working class before the General Strike of 1926

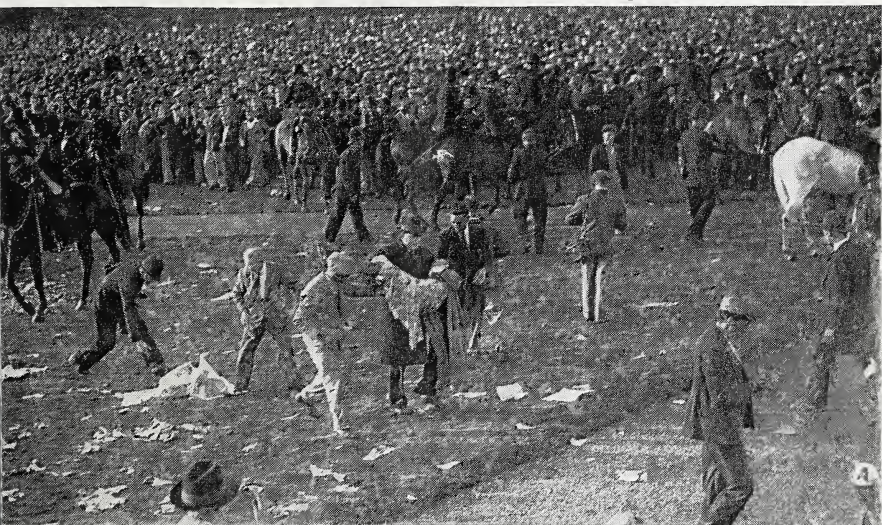

Tommy Jackson speaking at a Communist Party rally in Trafalgar Square in 1924

TION EACE IALISM

The Communist Party's propaganda van—vintage 1921

The great anti-Fascist demonstration in Hyde Park on September 9, 1934. The Labour Party said "stay at home"; the Communist Party cried "All Out to Smother Mosley"

Above: Harry Pollitt and Bill Rust with members of the British Battalion of the International Brigade at the front in Spain

Left: Unemployed workers hold up the traffic in Oxford Street: 1934

Below: Great Second Front demonstration in Trafalgar Square in June 1942, called by the Party

Miners on the "March for Life"—June 29, 1958—the national demonstration called by the Communist Party that packed Trafalgar Square

... and the Fight Goes On

May Day, 1959. Communist youth demonstrates its confidence in the future

Date Due

Harry Pollitt and st with members of ish Battalion of the tional Brigade at front in Spain

employed workers
the traffic in Oxford Street : 1934

Great Second Front
stration in Trafalgar Square in June 1942,
called by the Party

Miners on the "March for Life"—June 29, 1958—the national demonstration called by the Communist Party that packed Trafalgar Square

... and the Fight Goes On

May Day, 1959. Communist youth

HX 632 A1 W9 no.126
World communism in the 20th century.

0172047A MAIN

